on record for the project on Stewart St. that will be ongoing (multiple units) I just wanted to let you know that I am working on getting those done asap and that I will have another construction supervisor take over the other 2 units on Stewart St. and step away from the project. I was also recently asked to be the general contractor on a recently sold town property but told them I cannot due to conflicts of interest while serving as a building official. Please let this serve as my notice that I am working on getting these closed out and I will not take on any other construction work in the town of Palmer, or its villages from here on out. during my employment for the town.
