Each day the property remains in violation constitutes a separate offense.
- c. Failure to maintain the property is punishable by a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) per day. Violations of this section shall be treated as a strict liability offense regardless of intent. Fines shall be recoverable by indictment or on complaints before a District Court, or by noncriminal disposition in accordance with M.G.L. c. 40 s. 21D.
- d. Additionally, if a property is not registered as called for herein, the Director of the Board of Health, or his designee, shall have the right to file an action to enforce this regulation in the Western Housing Court - Springfield Session or any other court of competent jurisdiction, and shall require the owner(s) as defined herein to register forthwith, and further shall require the owner(s) to disclose the name and address of the casualty loss insurer insuring the premises, and shall be required to provide proof that there is insurance, bond or letter of credit in such a sufficient amount to cover demolition of the property in the event of a fire or other conditions requires the demolition of the property.
- e. All invoices for the payment of municipal charges and bills, fines or violations are due under any provision of this regulation or arising in connection with enforcing the regulation within twenty-one (21) days after they are mailed unless a different due date is otherwise provided by law or regulation. Any invoice remaining unpaid after its due date will accrue interest from the due date at the rate of interest charged on tax bills under the provisions of M.G.L. c. 59, s. 57 as the same may from time to time be amended.
- f. The fees and charges assessed under this regulation, together with interest thereon and costs relative thereto, shall be a lien upon the real estate as described in G.L.c. 40, section 58. The lien shall take effect upon the recording of a list of unpaid municipal charges and fees by parcel of land and by the name of the person assessed for the charge or fee in the registry of deeds and, if a charge or fee which is secured by a municipal charges lien remains unpaid when the assessors are preparing a real estate tax list and warrant to be committed under G.L.c. 59, section 53 the enforcing authority in charge of collecting the charge or fee, or the collector of taxes shall certify charge or fee to the assessors, who shall forthwith add the charge or fee to the tax on the property to which it relates and commit it with their warrant to the collector of taxes as part of such tax.

- g. If the property to which such charge or fee relates is tax exempt, the charge or fee shall be committed as the tax. A lien under this section may be discharged by filing a certificate from the tax collector that all municipal charges or fees constituting the lien, together with any interest and costs thereon, have been paid or legally abated. All costs of recording or discharging a lien under this section shall be borne by the owner of the property.
- h. Upon the neglect or violation of any duty imposed by this ordinance, that duty may be performed by the enforcing authority at the expense of the person charged with the duty. The Town may recover its expenses, not exceeding the penalty, in a legal action of contract.

8. Appeal:

Any person aggrieved by the requirements of this regulation or by a decision issued under this section by the Board of Health or their designee may seek relief by requesting a hearing, in writing before the Board of Health. If still aggrieved by the decision of the Board of Health, then said persons shall file with any court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth.

9. Interpretation:

- a. If any provision of this section imposes greater restrictions or obligations than those imposed by any other general law, special law, regulation, rule, ordinance, by-law, order, or policy then the provisions of this section control.
- b. Each section, each provision or requirement of any section of this regulation shall be considered separable. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or portion of this regulation is for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct and independent provision, and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions hereof.
- c. Nothing in this regulation is intended to, nor shall it be construed to, diminish or limit the powers, authorities and duties of the Board of Health.

10. Regulatory Authority:

The Board of Health or his designee has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations necessary to implement and enforce this regulation. The Town has the right to petition the Housing Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction for enforcement of this regulation.

11. Applicability and Severability:

If any provision of this section imposes greater restrictions or obligations than those imposed by any other general law, special law, regulation, rule, ordinance, by-law, order, or policy then the provisions of this section control. If any provision of this section is held to be invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction then such provision shall be considered separately and apart from the remaining provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect.

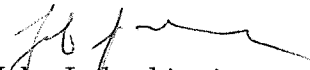

12. Implementation:

Adoption of regulations is pursuant to M.G.L. c. 111, s. 31, requiring a majority vote of the Board and publication in a local newspaper. The provisions of this section are effective upon adoption of this regulation. The guidelines of and all provisions shall be enforced immediately after the required publication period, but no monetary fine shall be imposed pursuant hereto until ninety (90) days after passage.
